Attention: Mr. Brian Evans

Dear Sirs:

Re: Michael @TMDILH and Dad

Please be advised that I am the solicitor for Michael Dad with respect to a criminal charge of dangerous operation of a motor vehicle laid September 29, 2005.

Mr. Dad was alleged by his spouse Dolores Dukes to have driven his pick-up truck in the parking lot of the Sunnybrae Golf course in a manner which was alarming to her and dangerous to she and their daughter Child

As this was a scheduled time for pick-up of the child for access, and as Mr. Dad had concerns about the veracity of Ms. Dukes' assertions regarding transportation and because he was concerned about allegations which may be made about his behaviour, Mr. Dad videotaped the incident which led to the criminal charge being laid.

I reviewed the videotape with the Crown Attorney in charge of the case. He agreed that it was likely that there was no reasonable prospect of conviction (as the tape clearly did not show dangerous operation), but asked that in exchange for a withdrawal of the criminal charge, Mr.

Dad engage in Anger Management Counselling and enter into a peace bond to stay away from Ms. Dukes and her present boyfriend.
