

April 18/05

I do not like the way you are treating me. I do not like being yelled at. I am not happy & I don't think our relationship is healthy. I will not be treated with disrespect. This has weighed heavy on me & it is not easy but an example must be made for Child & I'm concerned she is not getting a good one.

Child is safe & I'm not telling her "bad" things about her dad.

I will be in touch with you soon. I don't know how long I will be gone.
